

Luke Leonard

Project E.I.

Active Firm Member since 2006

With other firms: 0

Education: Degree(s)/Years/Specialization

Estimated Graduation – B.S./2008/Civil Engineering

Mr. Leonard has 1 year experience in surveying as an Instrument Man for Forte and Tablada. Mr. Leonard has gained survey experience in the use of Topcon and Sokkia Total Stations, Global Positioning Systems (GPS) and Data Collector Systems.

Mr. Leonard is scheduled to graduate in Civil Engineering from Louisiana State University and plans to sit for the Louisiana Professional Land Surveyors Exam in early 2009.

Mr. Leonard offers the following skills in Land Surveying:

- Surveying services for Boundary, Topographic and Rights-of-Way surveying.
- Surveying services for Wastewater Collection and Treatment.
- Surveying services for Roadway Design including rural and urban roadways.
- Surveying services for Drainage Design including both open and sub-surface drainage systems.
- Surveying services for Civil Site Work including all utilities, drainage, site layout and planning.
- Surveying services for residential construction including flood elevation certificates and plot plans.
- Surveying services for Correctional Facilities including Parish, State and Federal design standards.
- Surveying services for Subdivision Design including small re-subdivisions to multi acre developments including all associated civil sitework to service the development.